Colonel David Hechinger will on Monday next celebrate his 60th birthday. More than one-half of Mr. Hechinger's life has been spent in the city, and his hosts of friends hope he may remain with them as many years to come.

L. and N. passenger train No. 2, from Lexington to Cincinnati, ran into a lot of ties piled on the track when near Versailles yesterday morning. The robbers were evidently after the paycar, which arrived in this city last evening.

A MODERN MALTHUSIAN.

I can't get no job,
I can't no good to try;
There is too many born
An' there ain't enough die;
There's too big a crowd
For a man to wedge in;
I can't find no job,
An' I shant try ag'in;
You can't get no job
In the kentry or town.
There is too many folks in the worl',
An' there ain't enough jobs to go roun'.

W'en the world was cut out
'Twas out too small;
'Twas out too small;
For its purpose at all;
The crowd is jammed in
In a terrible cram;
Best thing you can do
Is get out er the jam.
So I've crawled from the crowd
An' I've jest settled down.
There is too many folks in the worl',
An' there ain't enough jobs to go roun'.

My talents is large,
But they've no room to grow;
The worl' is too small,
And they don't get no show,
"An'," says I to myself,
"You, Semperonious Lang,
Clear out er this mob
An' git out er this gang,
For the mob'll jest crowd
An' jes trample ye down."
There is too many folks in the worl',
An' there ain't enough jobs to go roun'.

An' it don't do no good,
An' I ain't goin' to look,
For all places is filled,
An' the jobs is all took.
The worl' it wuz built
On a too narrow plan,
So I'm a shut-out
So what is the good
For to rush up an' down?
There is too many folks in the worl',
An' there ain't enough jobs to go roun'.

There was jest one job left
In Bill Breen's cotton mill,
All the one I could find.
In the hull worl' to fill,
But I've such a big heart,
This one job of my life
I jest give it up,
Gen'rous like, to my wife.
An' there ain't no more jobs,
So I've jest settled down.
There is too many folks in the worl',
An' there ain't enough jobs to go roun'.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S
WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black above—WILL WARMER
grow.
If Black's beneath—COLDER 'TILL
be;
Unless Black's shown—no change
we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

We respectfully invite the comparison of THE LEDGER with any other daily newspaper in all Northeastern Kentucky if any one can find a daily paper printed in the Ninth Congressional District that has a larger circulation, or more original reading matter, we will take pleasure in presenting him with a year's subscription to THE LEDGER. And this paper is furnished at same price as inferior ones.

George Stribling of Murphysville has been granted a pension.

Brookville failed to organize a Camp of Sons of Veterans, not enough interest being manifested.

E. P. Wheeler, charged with a breach of the peace, paid $5 and costs. He caressed a fellow citizen's head with a club.

Judge M. C. Hutchins has appointed Joseph Coughlin Constable for District No. 1, in place of John T. Geis, resigned.

A Bath county man, says The Sharpshooter World, has raised a lot of bluegrass with blades measuring four feet eight inches in length.

There is talk of Prof. Jno. Aug. Williams establishing a male and female college at Owingsville. There is no better location in Kentucky for such a school.

BIG BOOM IN TOBACCO.

White Burley Selling at Louisville at $26 a Hundred.

A remarkable sale of fine Burley tobacco took place on "the breaks" at Louisville Wednesday.

The highest prices of the year were realized.

The two best hogsheads sold for $30 a hundred, and several others brought from $22 to $25 50.

One hundred hogsheads averaged $16 50 a hundred, and 125 hogsheads sold by the same warehouse realized about $35,000.

THE LEDGER'S BASEBALL FAN!

Points in the Game Played Yesterday Afternoon at Maysville's Handsome New Park.

Bradley, Maysville's new pitcher, was in the box yesterday afternoon and twirled a magnificent game, but was slovenly supported, and as a consequence our boys received their first downfall of the season.

The home team simply took a day off and played a very bum game in the field, Bradley being the only one who had a chance that did not make a mess of it.

On the other hand, the Cincinnati boys played with spirit and gave young Engle good support at critical points.

Engle pitched in clever style, holding the Local sluggers down to eight scattered hits.

The game: Captain McGann broke the spell by taking the bat. Two errors by the visitors and Crane's single gave our boys a pair of tallies right at the breakaway.

Cox's muff of Heileman's high fly and a rattling single by Carr let in a score for the visitors in the second.

Maysville chalked up another run in the third. Cox bunted and beat it out. Heileman threw wild to first to catch him and Cox sprinted to third and trotted home on Curle's three bagger, which he tried to stretch into a home run and was nailed at the plate.

The Cincinnati tied the score in their half on errors by Sutherland and Tenley and a single by Walker.

Neither side scored again until the eighth, when our boys went all to pieces and allowed the visitors to score six unearned runs.

Our boys made a game fight to overtake their opponents in the ninth, but fell short.

The score:

SHORT STOPS.

We held 'em too cheap.
Nine successive victories made our boys careless.

Win out this morning, Mac, and you are forgiven.

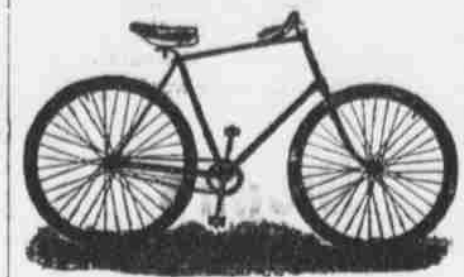

The third and last game of the series is in progress as we go to press.

The visitors are sailing under the Navies' banner, but there are only four men on the team that belong to the Navies, namely, Walker, Rodemer, Curtis and Schrahl.
